Swimmers, Parents, Coaches and Families,

Welcome to the 2014 Irvine Swim League Championships! Today we celebrate the successful completion of our 30th season. Over the past 10 weeks our swimmers have been working hard and having fun. Today, whether they come in 1st or 31st, we cheer for them and applaud their accomplishments.

The Irvine Swim League was established in 1985 with 5 teams and 260 swimmers. Today we have 20 thriving teams and over 2,600 swimmers, over 1800 competing here today! In our 30 seasons our mission has not changed; our goals remain water safety, stroke improvement and individual improvement.

Over the past 3 weeks William Woollett Jr. Aquatics Center has hosted some of the most elite swimmers in county for the Speedo Junior Nationals and the Phillips 66 Nationals. Now it's our swimmers' turn to show what they have accomplished over these last 10 weeks. Now it's their turn to shine on the "big stage" where Olympic legends competed!

We want to thank the City of Irvine and the Irvine Unified School District for their support throughout the year. We are very lucky to have these beautiful facilities for our use. We also thank the many Home Owners Associations who support our 17 HOA teams.

A special thank you goes out to the over 2,000 volunteers and coaches who have worked to make this season memorable for our children. We thank the dads who haul easy ups, the moms who apply sunscreen and always have towels at the ready; the team boards who work year-round to make each season the best they can; the members of the ISL Executive Board who volunteer their time not only on their neighborhood team, but also put in many hours to make sure that the league is successful; and Lizzie Howard, our Executive Director, who constantly works behind the scenes to keep the many moving pieces running smoothly.

I hope that you all enjoy this beautiful day and look forward to another amazing ISL season next year!

Irvine Swim League Mission and Values

MISSION

The Irvine Swim League provides the organizational structure for a recreational developmental summer swim league for youth who live in Irvine with an emphasis on water safety, stroke instruction, and individual improvement.

VISION

ISL's vision is to introduce the sport of swimming to youngsters who live in Irvine working with association and all-city teams.

PHILOSOPHY

The Philosophy of the League is to promote neighborhood swim teams through a formal ongoing organization. To provide the type of individual competition that has, as its primary goal, the safe teaching of swimming with the proper strokes, the enhancement of each swimmers' self-esteem through the improvement of their individual performance, to promote sportsmanship and to promote improved relationships between swimmers, parents and neighbors. As a secondary goal, the Irvine Swim League provides some motivation to each swimmer as a member of the team.

OFFICERS

League officers are elected from the Board of Directors for a period of one year. The Board of Directors is comprised of League officers, Presidents and Representatives from each team in the League. The Board meets throughout the year in order to provide a quality summer program for Irvine youngsters.

HISTORY

Nancy Albers and Mike Flynn, Irvine residents, working with Dion Gray and Dave Tungate, Community Services, and Deanna Manning, Director of Community Services for the City of Irvine, founded the league in 1985. There were 260 swimmers on five teams that first season. Now, representing nineteen teams, 2280 swimmers participated in the 2012 season.

2014 David Kelly ISL Parent Volunteer of the Year

Ira Glasky, Northwood Pointe Flash

Ira Glasky is well known in the Irvine Swim League community for his stewardship of the ISL and his dedication to the swimmers of Irvine. Ira has continually gone above and beyond with his involvement and has volunteered an unparalleled number of hours over the last 11 years to both the Northwood Pointe Flash team and the Irvine Swim League at large.

Ira has fostered the growth and development of the Flash family since the first of his 2 kids joined the team 11 years ago. Both his son, Spencer, a senior at Northwood High School, and daughter Julia, a sophomore at Northwood have been enthusiastic competitors on Flash and Spencer has continued the family involvement serving as a coach for the squad the past 3 seasons.

Ira has served in many positions for the Flash over the years including President for 2 years. His willingness to mentor others in leadership positions and his availability as a defacto “officer emeritas” has helped many Flash board members and families alike. His presence is still the harbinger of summer as his voice kicks off Flash meets as announcer for the past 3 years.

Ira further served the Irvine swim community as a member of the ISL Executive Board and as ISL President for 3 years. He continues to add his support to ISL and Flash as an ardent voice for growth of the swim program.

During his time as ISL president, Ira brought the Athlete Protection Education program used by USA Swimming to league coaches, introduced online registration to the league and developed the campsite setup for Champs that we are enjoying today. He has also served as a member of the City of Irvine Aquatics Advisory Board.

He continues to help new members in leadership positions on our team and is a ready contributor and mentor to our board.

Though his children’s time in the swim community is nearing a close he continues to be an advocate for our kids as the newest elected member of the Irvine School board.

It is caring, engaged, advocates for our kids like Ira who make our community and the ISL such desirable organizations.

Irvine Swim League 2014 Todd K. Larsen Coach of the Year

Kyle Kim-E, Park Paseo Northstars

We had many wonderful nominations for the Todd K. Larsen Coach of the Year award this year, but one stood out from the rest. Coach Kyle Kim-E, head coach for the Park Paseo Northstars. Coach Kyle is passionate about carrying on the traditions and spirit of the Northstars team. He makes sure every swimmer gets better individually while having fun doing it. This is what creates a life long love for swimming. It is why he is so valuable to the Northstars team and ISL.

Kyle is an alumni of the Northstars and has been their head coach for four years. He has done excellent work for the swim team and he is well respected by their families and the community. He has consistently exceeded expectations and has gone above and beyond for the benefit of the team.

He has organized Fun Fridays for the team on his own time. He coordinates dinners with the other coaches, including the youth volunteers, to debrief after the meets and talk about what the coaches could have done better. He and his staff have seen 5 Park Paseo records broken this year, including a relay record that had stood for 20 years.

His interests outside of the swim team include the charity he founded while a student at Chapman University, Wells for Well Being (www.wellsforwellbeing.org.) Kyle and his team construct wells and deliver water filtration systems in Cambodia. He has spent the last two spring breaks in Cambodia personally overseeing construction and relief efforts.

“Kyle is respectful to all his swimmers, the team parents, and his fellow coaches. In addition, Kyle is an excellent role model for our swimmers. Along with coaching, Kyle has started his own philanthropic organization. Kyle has been a tremendous coach for Park Paseo. I believe that Kyle Kim-E embodies what Park Paseo strives to teach all their swimmers; a strong work ethic, respect, and compassion. He is a tremendous coach and person and I would strongly recommend him for the Coach of the Year award.” ~ Vivian Sellwood, Northstars Parent

Alexa Clayfield, Westpark Marlins

Future Plans: Orange Coast College, studying kinesiology and continuing to swim and play water polo.

I started Irvine Swim League when I was 7 years old, hands down one of the best decisions my parents and I have ever made. It was something completely foreign to me but at the same time something I was so comfortable with. The team had a huge sense of unity when I joined, which definitely was my favorite part. Everyone seemed so happy and excited to be at swim practice. The ISL created a sense of home for me not necessarily where my front door was, or my kitchen, or my bedroom, but on a pool deck. Walking onto the pool deck at 4:30pm every summer evening was the best part of my day. I knew I got to hangout with my friends, talk to my coaches, and swim my little heart out and when I got home I got to crash on my bed knowing I had worked so hard and had so much fun.

Growing up on the Westpark Marlins throughout the years changed me into a fish, not literally of course, but it did get me fast and real tan. The coaching staff made the experience the best, which definitely made me want to be one of them when I grew up. I looked up to them more than I think they knew. Each coach strived to make the team better, no matter if it was telling the swimmer to streamline a little longer or to not breath on every stroke or to even just say, "get off the lane line!" There was something that always intrigued me about being a respected leader.

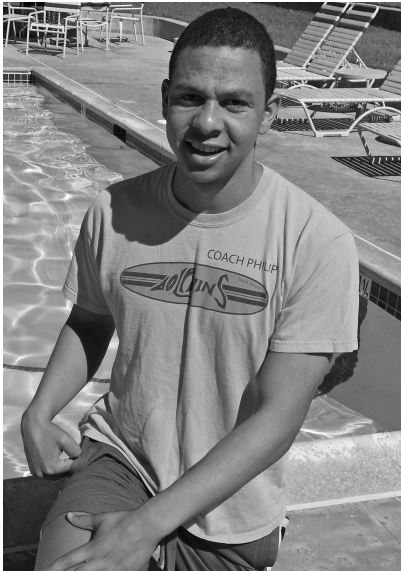

As years swam by, I realized that I absolutely loved swimming. It was my happy place; my dedicated two hours everyday where I got to improve on my sport. I wanted to be the best I could be, so I took out extra time to do swim lessons where I met a man that changed my life forever. The main person that influenced me the most in the ISL was definitely, Todd Larsen. He was the greatest mentor, coach, friend anyone could have asked for. He showed me that there is no reason to be mean or to not love what you are doing every minute of your day. He was a man of trust, compassion, and love for everyone around him. He made everyone feel like an equal, like they had a purpose on being on that pool deck everyday. I would like to think I am following in his footsteps. I absolutely love coaching just like he did. These past 4 years as either a volunteer or assistant coach has truly made me a more confident, respected, enthusiastic, dedicated young woman. Without his tremendous amount of care and effort he put into everything he did to help improve those he cared for, I can honestly say I wouldn't be the same person I am today if it wasn't for him. I am immensely grateful for the time he dedicated to me to help me become better and that is why I wanted to give back and help out other swimmers who have the same desire to be talented.

If it wasn't for Todd Larsen, I wouldn't have been able to achieve as much gratitude and excitement as I have in the past 11 years. When I started high school I was talented enough to start on the Varsity swim team, go to CIF all four years, earn sportsmanship awards, inspirational awards, and leadership awards all before I graduated from high school. It wasn't so much that I was looking to be awarded at every banquet, it was that I wanted to make sure I left a lasting imprint on everyone I touched. I wanted to make sure I was enjoying what I was doing while making everyone around me feel happy and apart of something important. I wanted to show people that it wasn't about getting a plaque and showing it off, more or rather it was about how I could show someone I am willing to work hard not for an award but for myself.

As I turn the page and close this chapter I will remember that there is just something about stepping up onto the blocks, taking your mark, and slicing through the water; which gets me every time. The ISL started my swimming career and I am so excited to keep swimming in college and for the rest of my life; especially since I don't like to run.

Irvine Swim League Achievement Award Winner 2014

Phillip Wright, South Irvine Dolphins

Future Plans: Mt. San Antonio College, majoring in kinesiology

2014 marks my eleventh year of swimming in the Irvine Swim League. When I was seven years old and barely able to cross a 25 yard pool on my own, my parents signed me up to swim in the Irvine Swim League. Eleven years later, I have graduated from High School and I am still swimming, volunteering and more recently also coaching for my ISL team. The most valuable experiences gained during my eleven years of participation in the ISL include competitiveness, fairness, friendship and confidence. Without a doubt, these experiences have vastly influenced my personal and educational growth and have helped shape me into the person I am now.

Over the years, the ISL has given me so much that it is hard to know where to begin. When I was seven years old, I thought of myself as a big hero because I was able to cross the pool all on my own. My parents also thought that I was an amazing swimmer and encouraged me to attend the ISL championship meet that year. I did not know anything about ISLQ times, and I certainly did not have any of such qualifying times. All I knew was that I was going to a Championship swim meet and that it was going to be awesome. I swam only one race my first year at ISL Championships, the 7-8 year-old boy's 25 yard freestyle, and I ended up in 53rd place with a turquoise participation ribbon. What a disappointment! After that meet I felt like I had let everyone down, including myself. This is when I decided that I was not going to let this happen again. The big lesson I learned that year was that I needed to be more competitive and work harder to achieve better results.

For my second year swimming in the ISL, my goal was to win the 25 yard freestyle race at Championships. I realized that some practice in advance of the ISL season would help me achieve my goal. So I asked my parents to sign me up for year round swimming. During the practices I remember how I was motivated by my goal of winning the 25 yard freestyle race. And it worked! My second year swimming at the ISL Championships, I tied for first place in the 7-8 year old boy's 25 yard freestyle. Getting the blue first place medal was priceless to me. The big lesson learned that year was that goal setting works and that if I want to achieve something bad enough, I can do it!

The following years I continued with year – round swim training. Although my club coaches tried their best to convince me otherwise, my goal continued to be to swim my best performances at ISL Championships. Throughout the 9-10, 11-12 and 13-14 age groups I set numerous team records for my ISL team and even set several ISL league records at the Championship meets. The friendships I formed with my ISL team-mates throughout the years became a key motivator for me. The cheering of my teammates gave me confidence and motivation to win. From these experiences I learned the value of friendship and team spirit.

When I entered High School I became eligible to be a coach for my ISL team – first as a volunteer coach and later as a paid coach. This experience has been one of the most rewarding so far. There is nothing like seeing the 7-8 year olds earning huge time improvements or a kid getting their first ISLQ time. The kids make me feel appreciated because I help them swim faster and I feel successful because of their successes. In addition, it was a valuable learning experience for me to go through the coach certification process, including the Red Cross CPR certification and the safety training for swim coaches.

As I am entering College in the fall, I am planning on swimming for my College and to major in kinesiology. The ISL has provided me with a foundation for growth and development. And the sport of swimming has become a huge part of my life because of the ISL. In fact, I like swimming and I like coaching because of the ISL.

The ISL is a great organization that has helped me tremendously with my personal and professional growth. I developed from barely-swimmer to a good swimmer to champion to record breaker and eventually to swimmer/coach. Participation in the ISL has taught me to be competitive and to set goals for myself. In addition, the ISL has given me confidence, lasting friendships and my first paid job. As a result, I cannot help but appreciate the ISL. Thank you to the ISL for eleven great seasons and as many years of valuable experiences and opportunities for personal growth.

Congratulations to the Irvine Swim League on 30 Outstanding Seasons!

Wishing all of the 2014 Swimmers and Participants a Successful and Memorable Lifetime Experience.

This wonderful sport brings the entire family and neighborhood together.

My 3 children loved swimming for our neighborhood team, the Courtside Stingrays. I loved serving as a parent volunteer, and having the honor of serving as the team president for 4 years.

Irvine Swim League was an irreplaceable tradition for my family for 13 seasons.

Congratulations to all of this year's participants,

Lynn Schott
